SEXTING: WHAT TO DO?

amaze

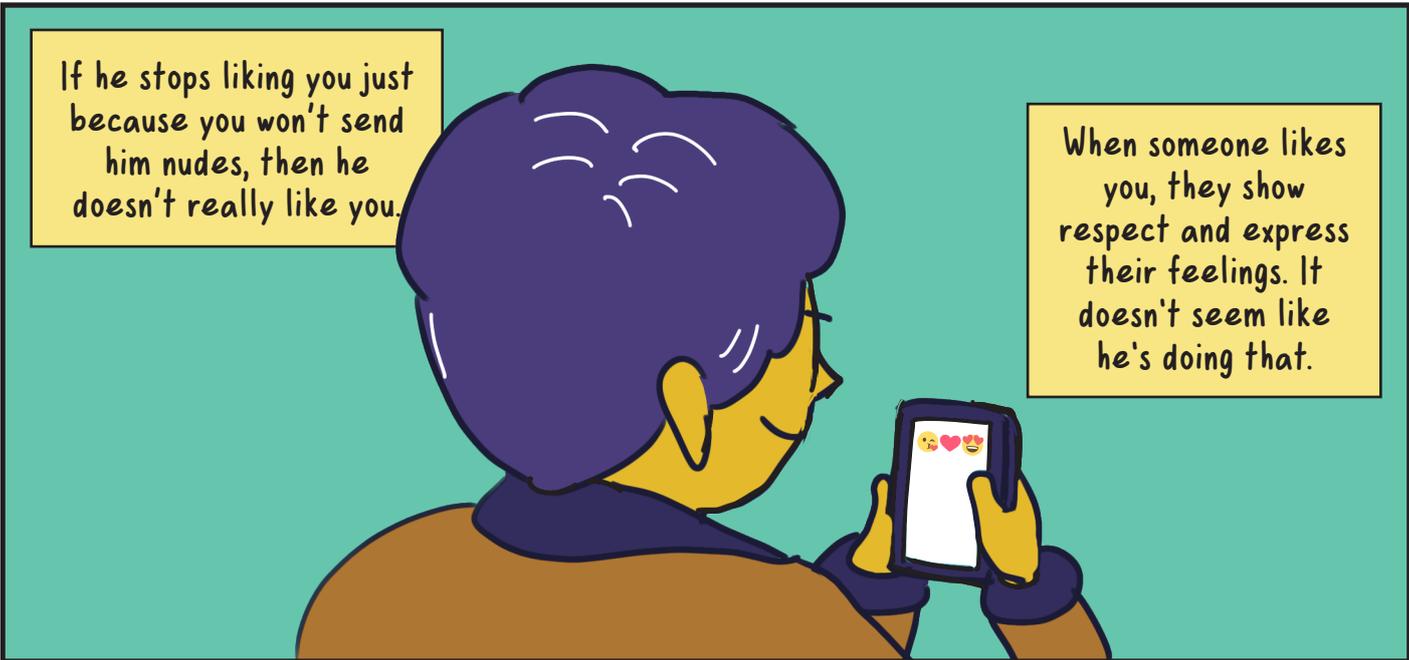

I heard about this girl whose pictures ended up all over the internet because a boy shared them everywhere.

And even though her parents supported her and she got legal help, she still had a rough time.

Yeah I guess...
But I don't want to just turn him down, I want him to like me.

If he stops liking you just because you won't send him nudes, then he doesn't really like you.

When someone likes you, they show respect and express their feelings. It doesn't seem like he's doing that.

One day later...

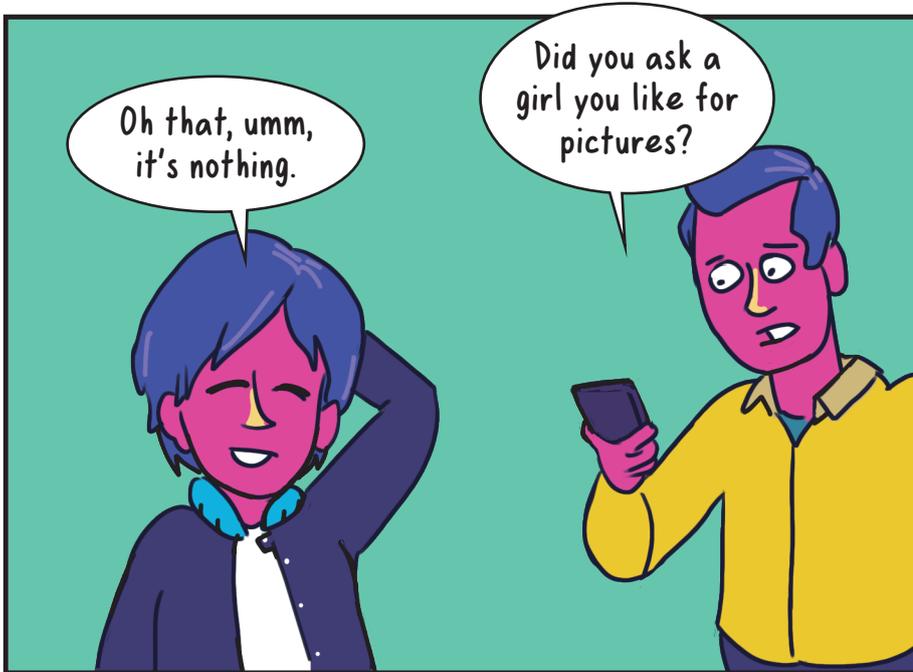

Chris, you got a message.

It's probably Josh. Can you get that? My hands are kind of dirty.

Nope, it's not Josh. What's this text about?

Dude, what's wrong with you? Why would you ask Mabel for a sexy pic? You really creped her out!

Later that day...

Uh, hey Mabel.
Can we talk?

Sure...

I'm sorry about that text. My friends pressured me to do it. I shouldn't have.

I didn't mean to creep you out.

Thanks, it made me feel kinda weird.
But I appreciate your apology.

Give me a sec,
I got a text.

Do you want to go
ride our bikes to the park on Saturday?
Pets are also invited!

That's a much better question!
I'd love to,
let's go.

REMINDER

Privacy is a right. If someone shares your pictures without permission, talk to a trusted adult. There could be legal consequences.

No one can make you send pictures you're not comfortable sharing!

IMPORTANT!

All sexual activities, including virtual ones, should be based on mutual consent and carried out responsibly and safely.
